A Strategic Partnership – Kina Advisory and INTESTRAT Services

Reshma Shah joins Kina Advisory as a Partner and Senior Associate

We are pleased to announce a strategic partnership between Kina Advisory and INTESTRAT Services Ltd – a partnership that has been fuelled by a strong passion for Africa and the transformative role that businesses can play in positively shaping the futures of countries and impacted communities on the continent.

Kina Advisory is a trusted advisor to companies operating on the African continent on integrating sustainability practices into core business strategies and operations. Kina has offices in the UK and Ghana. INTESTRAT Services, based out of Kenya, is a locally owned company with an international focus, working with companies to unlock value (triple bottom line) through integrative strategies including risk and performance management, change management and ESG.

Reshma Shah, founder and CEO of INTESTRAT Services, will also be joining the Kina team as a Partner and Senior Associate. Reshma brings with her a strong background in Finance, Strategy, Risk & Performance Management, Change Management and ESG at both a leadership and operational level.

We believe this strategic partnership will enhance the offerings of both organisations and will ensure we keep providing holistic, fit-for-purpose and business focused support to our clients.
